

*Fredericksburg
Music Club, Inc.*

Established 1937

presents

Karla Hamelin

Cellist

November 18, 2012

A vibrant musician and innovative educator, cellist Karla Hamelin is a graduate of The University of Texas at Austin with a Doctorate of Musical Arts in Cello Performance. While a doctoral student, she was the teaching assistant to Professor Phyllis Young. Before pursuing her doctorate degree, Karla attended The University of Michigan and earned a Masters of Music degree in cello performance under the tutelage of Anthony Elliott. Her principal teachers have included Anthony Elliott, Ronald Leonard, Phyllis Young and the late Julie Banton.

*Fredericksburg
Music Club, Inc.*

Established 1937

P.O. Box 1214, Fredericksburg, Texas 78624

presents

November 18, 2012

Karla Hamelin

Cellist

A vibrant musician and innovative educator, cellist Karla Hamelin is a graduate of The University of Texas at Austin with a Doctorate of Musical Arts in Cello Performance. While a doctoral student, she was the teaching assistant to Professor Phyllis Young. Before pursuing her doctorate degree, Karla attended The University of Michigan.

Concerts will be held at 3:00 p.m.

Fredericksburg United Methodist Church
1800 N. Llano (Hwy. 16 North) – Fredericksburg, Texas

No tickets - There is a free will donation basket at the door, all concerts are funded through grants or private and corporate donations through mail, at the door, or through our website.

www.FredericksburgMusicClub.com