We have another exciting season of performers contracted for our 2011-2012 season. There will be eight concerts at the United Methodist Church. We have also partnered with Fredericksburg Friends of Conspirare to help promote a ticketed concert at St. Mary's Church.

Last year your generous donations provided funds for nine very high caliber performances, a violin and piano recital, a new Steinway Concert Grand piano, and a strings Master Class.

We hope you will join us again this coming season. Donations can be made through the mail in the enclosed envelope, or with a credit card on our web site at www.fredericksburgmusicclub.com.

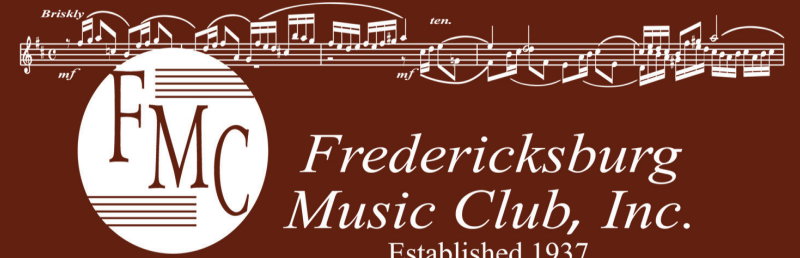

The Fredericksburg Music Club originated in 1937 as a small study club in a private home and has now emerged into a music organization of international reputation. We hope that you will join us in ensuring that this tradition continues. There will be no charge for the concerts at the United Methodist Church. These concerts are funded through grants and generous private and corporate donations via mail, at the door, or at our web site. The St. Mary's concert will be a ticketed concert.

 Fredericksburg Music Club Inc. is a 501 (C) 3 organization. ***

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:
The Symphony of the Hills will open their 2011-2012 season on Thursday October 6, at 7:30p.m. Flyers for the complete season will be available at the Music Club's September concert.

Guidonian Hand
Trombone Quartet

Hailed by the New York Times for their "expertly played" performances displaying "meaty lower brass textures," the Guidonian Hand Trombone Quartet is New York City's leading modern trombone collective.

Founded in 2007 by award-winning violist Ion Zanca, The Dallas String Quartet has quickly become the area's quartet of choice.

November 13, 2011
Dallas String Quartet

The Dallas String Quartet was recently featured in a documentary, "Eco-Harmony," produced by Twist & Shout Communications of London for Alcatel-Lucent, Paris. The film correlates the way individual musicians must perform together to the way individual businesses must work together to make a difference in the environment.

Chris McGuire, Classical Guitar

American guitarist Christopher McGuire commands the many expressive qualities of the guitar with what one critic called "unselfconscious intensity." His engaging performance style invites people of all ages to feel they are taking part, not just taking a seat.

March 18, 2012

Alamo Metro Chorus

Sweet Adelines

In the spring of every year, Alamo Metro Chorus participates in the Region 10 chorus competition in Houston, Texas. Competitions are a special time for quartets and choruses from our region to come together to sing for each other, and get some constructive feedback from a panel of judges.

April 15, 2012

James Dick

Recognized as one of the truly important pianists of his generation, internationally renowned concert pianist and Steinway artist James Dick brings keyboard sonorities of captivation, opulence and brilliance to performances that radiate intellectual insight and emotional authenticity.
