

*Fredericksburg
Music Club, Inc.*

Established 1937

presents

Christine Gage

Harpsichord, cello, violin, and flute

"Texafrance Ecoutez!"

March 16, 2014

Christine Albert's French grandmother lived in Paris and her mother was born in Switzerland, so she was surrounded by the French language and culture throughout her childhood. In a Santa Fe high school French class she discovered the music of Edith Piaf and the sounds of a Parisian caf began to show up in the music of this country/folk singer-songwriter. Throughout her career she has continued to move naturally and gracefully between the genres.

P.O. Box 1214, Fredericksburg, Texas 78624

presents

March 16, 2014

Christine Gage

Harpsichord, cello, violin, and flute
Texafrance-Encore! was produced by Albert's soft times duet partner Chris Gage and features a mixed bag of music, from the familiar "Made-moiselle de Paris" and jazz master Stephane Grapellis lively "Coucou" to the 18th-century ballad-turned-folk-song "Plaisir d Amour".

Concerts will be held at 3:00 p.m.

Fredericksburg United Methodist Church
1800 N. Llano (Hwy. 16 North) – Fredericksburg, Texas

No tickets - There is a free will donation basket at the door, all concerts are funded through grants or private and corporate donations through mail, at the door, or through our website.

www.FredericksburgMusicClub.com